

Discipleship and Public Life: Realizing Pope Francis' Vision

Sponsored by:

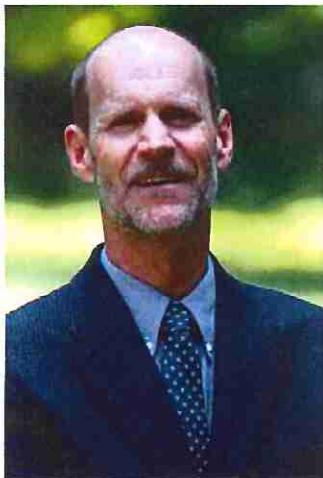

The Roppolo Memorial Endowment Committee

Friday, October 19 at 7pm to 8:30 pm

Saturday, October 20 at 9am to 12 noon

Schulte Auditorium, Notre Dame Seminary

2901 S. Carrollton Avenue, New Orleans

A dynamic reflection on being "A voice and witness for Catholic Social Teaching"
(Archdiocesan Synod Priority 5).

All are invited to the 2018 Roppolo Memorial Workshop presented by

Jack Jezreel

A passionate and nationally recognized speaker on Catholic Social Teaching, discipleship, and public life. Founder of the widely used and transformative JustFaith Ministries, which creates and supports formation processes intended to inspire commitment to social mission.

The Workshop is free and open to the public. Parking is available. Light refreshments provided.

For more information call (504) 861-6281 or email mauraodonovan74@gmail.com.

Please preregister for the workshop at <http://gps.loyno.edu/lim/roppolo>.

Msgr. Roppolo was "a beloved priest of the Archdiocese of New Orleans who ... had a pastoral heart and truly gave of his life in a collegial and collaborative way to strengthen the church among us" (Archbishop Gregory Aymond).

This event is supported by the Ignatius Roppolo Memorial Endowment, which was established by Msgr. Douglas Doussan, Matthew Rousso and Father Douglas Brouger to honor Msgr. Roppolo who served the sick and the poor and exercised collaborative leadership.

